"purification"

- 1) "by oneself one is purified ... one may not purify another"
Dhp 165
- 2) "by developing the path to awakening –
morality, concentration and wisdom –
I have attained supreme purity"
SN I 103
- 3) four purifications of a gift in the Dakkhiṇāvibhaṅga-sutta
MN III 256
- 4) purity and recital of pātimokkha
Vin I 103

- 5) purity and teaching the Dharma
SN II 199
- 6) purifying the mind from the hindrances
e.g. DN I 71
- 7) purifying the ear/eye required for the divine ear/eye
MN I 34/35
- 8) "direct path to purification of beings"
satipaṭṭhāna, MN I 55
four limbs of stream-entry, SN V 392
four purities, AN II 195
six recollections, AN III 314
- 9) "All conditioned things are impermanent/dukkha/not-self ...
this is the path to purity"
Dhp 277-279
- 10) "by wisdom one is purified"
SN I 214

MĀ 9 – Discourse on Seven Chariots
(Parallel to the Rathavinīta-sutta, MN 24 / MN I 146)

- 1) having few wishes and being contented,
- 2) living in seclusion,
- 3) being energetic,
- 4) having right mindfulness,
- 5) having mental one-pointedness,
- 6) having wisdom,
- 7) having destroyed the taints,
- 8) exhorting, inspiring, and fully delighting [others],

MN 24:

few wishes (= 1)
 contented (= 1)
 secluded (= 2)
 not socializing (≠)
 energetic (= 3)
 virtue (≠)
 concentration (= 5)
 wisdom (= 6)
 liberation (= 7)
 knowledge & vision of liberation (≠)
 teaches others (= 8)

throughout both versions the basic pattern is:
 1st being established oneself in some quality
 2nd establishing others in the same quality

MĀ 9

- 1) purification of virtue
- 2) purification of mind
- 3) purification of view
- 4) purification [from] the hindrance of doubt
- 5) purification by knowledge and vision of [what is] the path and [what is] not the path
- 6) purification by knowledge and vision of the way
- 7) purification by knowledge of the way to abandoning

MN 24:

- 1) purification of virtue, sīlavisuddhi,
- 2) purification of mind, cittavisuddhi,
- 3) purification of view, diṭṭhivisuddhi
- 4) purification by overcoming doubt, kaṅkhāvitaraṇavisuddhi,
- 5) purification by knowledge and vision of [what is] the path and [what is] not the path, maggāmaggañāṇadassanavisuddhi,
- 6) purification by knowledge and vision of the way, paṭipadāñāṇadassanavisuddhi,
- 7) purification by knowledge and vision, ñāṇadassanavisuddhi.

7 stages of purification recurs as part of a set of 9 stages of purification, additionally qualified as being "factor of exertion for purity", in the Dasuttara-sutta, D III 288:

- 1) purification of virtue, sīlavisuddhi,
- 2) purification of mind, cittavisuddhi,
- 3) purification of view, diṭṭhivisuddhi
- 4) purification by overcoming doubt, kaṅkhāvitaraṇavisuddhi,
- 5) purification by knowledge and vision of [what is] the path and [what is] not the path, maggāmaggañāṇadassanavisuddhi,
- 6) purification by knowledge and vision of the way, paṭipadāñāṇadassanavisuddhi,
- 7) purification by knowledge and vision, ñāṇadassanavisuddhi,
- 8) purification by wisdom, paññāvisuddhi,
- 9) purification by liberation, vimuttivisuddhi.

Ratana-sutta (Sn 231, cf. also Mahāvastu 1: 291)

"at the time of the attainment of vision [of stream-entry]
three things become abandoned,
the view of individuality and doubt and whatever [clinging to] rules and observances there may be."

Sāriputta's first question:

- 1) MĀ: "Venerable friend, are you practicing the holy life under the recluse Gotama?"
- 2) Sanskrit fragment (SHT VI 1329B1): (vi)[ś]uddhyartham [śra]maṇe.
